Weekly Trustpilot Report December 22, 2025 – December 29, 2025

AI-Generated Insights

Most reviewers were unhappy with their experience overall. Customers express significant dissatisfaction with payments, subscriptions, and pricing. Many consumers report unexpected charges and difficulty canceling their subscriptions, describing the cancellation process as intentionally complicated and misleading. People feel that the company makes it hard to stop payments and doesn't provide clear options for unsubscribing or getting refunds.

Consumers also report that they were charged without their consent and that the company continues to take money even after the subscription has been canceled. Some reviewers mention contacting customer support but only receiving generic, automated responses. Opinions on the product and app are mixed, with no strong consensus among reviewers.
